CSq001	tif	0-4-0 Steam Locomotive #3	Locomotive #3 is a 36-inch (3 feet) gauge 0-4-0 coal fired steam locomotive. It was built in September 1922 by the Vulcan Iron Works of Wilkes-Barre PA. It was owned by the General Crushed Stone Company and used at its quarry in LeRoy, near Rochester. After being retired from service, the locomotive sat unused for many years before the company donated it to the CNY Chapter of the National Railway Historical Society. It was moved to Central Square in November 1995 and cosmetically restored.
