The list of railroad photographs above includes the WINCHESTER COLLECTION as "NYC-W000" for photos taken by Phillip Winchester, a division engineer for the New York Central Railroad based in Syracuse whose job required inspection and design work. His photos were taken in the 1930s and 1940s and were donated to the CNY NRHS. Also in the collection are photos taken by his father, Robert H. Winchester, in Northern New York on the NYC subsidiary Rome, Watertown and Ogdensburg Railroad during the winters between 1904 and 1912. These are listed as "NYC-RWO-000."
